NATIONAL QUALIFIERS

Hi guys!! Coach Ashley here!

Lots of big tournaments are coming up in March! Sunshine Classic! Northeast! Red Rock Rave! Just to name a few ☺
Let's talk about controlling what we can! There will be times and/or situations that might get really frustrating. For instance, maybe you have been working super hard but your coach is benching you or isn't giving you a lot of play time! I get it! I have been there also! We can't control what our coach does but we can control our work ethic, our attitude, and our thoughts. It's really important to have realistic goals and to look for opportunities in all situations.

When Michael Jordan was upset after making JV as a Sophomore, his parents didn't tell him to transfer in order to be on Varsity. Instead, his mom said, "work harder and get better so you are on Varsity next year."
